

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

George Massih

George A. Massih III is an executive vice president and chief legal officer for CSC. Since joining CSC in 1997, he has served in business operations, product management, and corporate development, where he has overseen more than 30 acquisitions.

George also serves on the leadership committee of the Delaware Combined Campaign for Justice, which seeks to improve the availability of civil legal services in Delaware. He was a member of the board of directors of the Association of Corporate Counsel's DELVACCA chapter. He is the recipient of the 2005 Corporate Counsel Technology Institute's annual distinguished guest lecturer award at Widener University School of Law. George was named a 2020 recipient of the Burton Award for leadership as general counsel, in association with the Library of Congress and the American Bar Association.

He is a graduate of Lafayette College, where he received a B.A. in economics and business with honors and was awarded the George Wharton Pepper Prize. He received his law degree from Villanova University School of Law and is admitted to the bar in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and as corporate counsel in Delaware.

Raised in Wilmington, Delaware, George and his wife, Charlie, live in West Chester, Pennsylvania, with their two sons and a daughter.